

Born in Marseille on July 9th 1961. BSc (1984) and PhD in Chemistry (1989), earning several awards including the gold medal of the General Governor of Canada (University of Ottawa). Fellowship from Italian embassy in Canada (1987, University of Parma). Since 1989 she is at the University of Milan where she is now full professor of General and Inorganic Chemistry. Coordinator of the PhD in Industrial Chemistry (2009-2015 and 2018-2021). Member of the Directive Council of the Center of Excellence CIMAINA and of the Governing Council of the National Interuniversity Consortium of Materials Science and Technology (INSTM; 2016-2024) “Flavio Bonati” (GICO, SCI;1996) and “Federchimica-per un futuro intelligente” (1998) awards.

Her main research interests are the preparation of coordination compounds with second-order nonlinear optical and/or luminescent properties or for application in dye-sensitized solar cells. Author of 140 publications and three patents